

TWIST ON LIME

AGELESS COLOR SCHEMES, such as the green and pink palette in this bedroom opposite, can be used through the years because they are appealing to kids of all ages, from early elementary age to college age. To create a room that grows with your child, select classic color mixes that stay in style, such as red, white, and blue, or navy and gold.

